

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

Submission of a manuscript represents that it has neither been published nor submitted for publication elsewhere and is result of research carried out by author(s). Presentation in a conference and appearance in a symposium proceeding is not considered prior publication.

Authors are required to include a list describing all the symbols and abbreviations in the paper. Use of the international system of measurement units is mandatory.

- On-line submission of manuscripts results in faster publication process and is recommended. Instructions are given in the IJE web sites: www.ije.ir
- Manuscripts should be written in MS word 2003 or 2007 in double-spaced, with adequate margins.
- Citation of references in the text should be appeared Arabic number in ascending order, like [1, 2 ...], use square bracket. That means, references should be numbered consecutively in text. Bibliographic references should be listed at the end of the text.

Examples:

Journal Articles: Myrtha, K., Holia, O., Dawam, A. A. H. and Anung, S., “Effect of oil palm empty fruit bunch fiber on the physical and mechanical properties of fiber glass reinforced polyester resin”, Journal of Biological Sciences, Vol. 8, No. 1, (2008), 101-106.

Book: Clyne, T. W. and Hull, D., “An Introduction to Composite Materials”, 2nd ed., Cambridge University Press, Cambridge, (1996).

Conference Proceedings: Radharamanan, R. and Ansuji, A. P., “Quality Improvement of a Production Process using Taguchi Methods”, Proceedings of Institute of Industrial Engineers Annual conference, Dallas, Texas, (2001), 20-22.

- Figures should be addressed in the text by Arabic numerals (Figure 1, Figure 2, etc.). Figures should be supplied as electronic files. Also high-quality and high resolution of the original files of all figures and tables are required. Also figure legend should be supplied.
- Illustrations should appear in appropriate places in the text.
- Photograph and images should be in high quality saved as tiff files.

- All Tables, Illustrations, Figures and Diagrams will be normally printed in single column width (8cm). Exceptionally, large ones may be printed across two columns (maximum width 17cm).
- Authors should follow SI units and internationally agreed rules especially those adopted by the IUPAC-IUB Commission on Biochemical Nomenclature (CBN). The journal will essentially follow the rules defined in the IUPAC Manual of symbols and terminology for physico-chemical quantities and units (Butterworth, London), 1970.

Page Charges and Reprints

IJE subscribers do not need to make any payment for publication and reprints. Offprint, pdf files and hard copies of the issue that contains the published article will be supplied for every paper.

Author Checklist

- Author(s)' bio-data including affiliation(s) and mail and e-mail address (es).
- Manuscript including abstracts, key words, illustrations, tables, figures with figure captions and list of references.
- MS Word file of the manuscript.

1. Author responsibility

The authors are exclusively responsible for the contents of their submissions, the validity of the experimental results and must make sure that they have permission from all involved parties to make the data public. It is the responsibility of each author to ensure that papers submitted to IJE are written with ethical standards in mind, concerning plagiarism.

Please note that all submissions are thoroughly checked for plagiarism. If an attempt at plagiarism is found in a published paper, the authors will be asked to issue a written apology to the authors of the original material. Names of such authors may be included in IJE's black list. Additional action for any paper shows obvious signs of plagiarism will be automatically rejected and its authors will be banned for duration of three years from publishing in IJE. The authors will receive proper notification if such a situation arises. Information on what constitutes plagiarism is provided below.

2. Plagiarism: Definition and Context

Plagiarism, where someone assumes another's ideas, words, or other creative expression as one's own, is a clear violation of scientific ethics. Plagiarism may also involve a violation of copyright law, punishable by legal action.

Plagiarism may constitute the following:

- Word for word, or almost word by word copying, or purposely paraphrasing portions of another author's work without clearly indicating the source or marking the copied fragment (for example, using quotation marks);
- Copying equations, figures or tables from someone else's paper without properly citing the source and/or without permission from the original author or the copyright holder.

Self-plagiarism, as a related issue, is the word for word or almost word for word reproduction of portions of one's own copyrighted work without proper citation of the original material. Self-plagiarism does not apply to publications based on the author's own previously copyrighted work (for example from conference proceedings) where proper reference was given for the original text.

International Journal of Engineering editorial board will place any plagiarism-related investigation at high priority and will take appropriate action against authors as needed.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST

All authors are requested to disclose any actual or potential conflict of interest such as any financial, personal or other relationships with other people or organizations concerning the submitted work that could inappropriately influence, or be perceived to influence, their work.

COPYRIGHT AND PERMISSIONS

By submitting a manuscript to the editor or publisher you are deemed to have granted permission to publish the manuscript.

PROOFS

Proofs will be sent via e-mail as an Acrobat PDF (Portable Document Format) file. Acrobat Reader will be required in order to read the PDF. This software can be downloaded from the following website <http://www.adobe.com/products/acrobat/readstep2.html>

This will enable the file to be opened, read on screen and printed out in order for any corrections to be added. To avoid delay in publication, corrected proofs should be faxed to the publisher within 48 hours of receipt.
